Unexpected Death in Kansas City.

We learn from the Journal the following particulars of the death of W. H. Ruel, fornerly clerk at Fort Leavenworth, which occurred at Kansas City on Sunday evening

Yesterday morning early, we were greatly surprised to hear that Mr. W. H. Ruel had died Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock, of passive congestion of the brain. He was about the city Saturday attending to his business, and on Sunday morning was up and dressed at his usual hour of rising. In the afternoon he went into his garden and orchard and walked about for a time, and then returned to the house and wrote a note to Dr. Evans, which he sent his hired man to deliver, and also sent him to the post office to get what mail matter there might be addressed to him.

The hired man returned, delivered some letters and papers to Mr. Ruel, and went out of the house. Soon after Mrs. Ruel called to him, in an excited manner, to come to the Fourth and Alder streets. him, in an excited manner, to come to the room of Mr. R. as he was dying! He had, indeed, fallen forward in an unconscious condition, and did not revive until Dr. Evans came and administered some medicine. Mr. R. then recovered his consciousness, and, in a surprised manner, asked what was the matter? He was told he had suffered a serious attack. He then said he felt comfortable and thought he would soon be able to get up. He conversed with his wife for a short time, then was still for a moment. and as he drew up his shoulders while sufferand as he drew up his shoulders while suffering a spasm of pain, he remarked, feebly, "Doctor, I don't like this," and never spoke Church, of that city, for services rendered as another word, but steadily sank until his death, which occurred about 7½ a. m.

Mr. Ruel has been a citizen of this place

Bishop Kip, with whom he had contracted. merchant till a recent date. His health has not been good for some time, yet no one dreamed his death was near. The stroke that caused his death was hastened by unduexertion, exposure, and mental depression. He leaves a most estimable wife, and worthy family. We learn that his life had been in-sured for $13,500, but that unfortunately he had recently neglected to renew his policy.

Our Engine. Mr. Frank Nutz, the accomplished Foreman of the Great Western Machine Shops, put the finishing touches on the elegant new team engine in THE TIMES Office basement. and it is now in full blast. The entire machine was made at the above named establishment, and it is consequently needless to say that it is a first class institution, including one of the celebrated Nutz & Estes'

The following account of the arrest of a ing. Senators, Kellogg, Haas and Van supposed express robber we copy from the Lawrence Journal: The bold robbery of the U. S. Express bag, containing about $1,400, on the night of the 17th of July last, had been generally regarded by the public as given up by the detectives, till their well-laid plans fasten such suspicion on Alexander Montgomery, baggage master on the L., L. & G. R. R., that yesterday he was arrested, and, failing to give $2,000 bonds, was committed to the jail till Thursday morning, when he will have his trial before Justice Chadwick. The circumstances of the robbery are still fresh in the minds of all, so that it will not be necessary for us to enumerate them. John Mack, the Messenger from whom the sack was stolen, has sincedied. Shannon & Shannon are employed for the prosecution.

Horticultural Notice.

The regular monthly meeting of the Leavenworth County Horticultural Society will be held on Saturday next, the 12th inst., at the Western Gardener office, No. 103 Delaware street, Leavenworth City, at 1 o'clock p. m. All the members are earnestly solicited to attend, also all others having any desire for Horticultural interests.
Bring all the specimens of fruit and flowers you can for examination. The subject for discussion will be that of "Pear Culture." We wish to make some preliminary arrangements for attending the State Annual Meeting, to be held at Manhattan on the 6th of December next.

ROCHEFORT'S RETIREMENT FROM THE GOV ERNMENT. LONDON, Nov. 8.—A Paris journal of the 3d publishes a semi-official statement of the reasons for Rochefort's retirement: First, because of the failure to hold communications and, second, the Government's consent to the armistice negotiations. Rochefort is equally alienated from the Flourens party. Favre, Trochu, and five other members of the Government, wrote to Kochefort asking him to return, but he refused. LONDON, Nov. 8-Count Bismarck has furnished the following explanation of the rupture of negotiations for the armistice: The French Government, having declined through its representative Thiers, its ability to accept the German offer of an armistice on the basis of the statu quo, the Count pro-posed that the French name the time for holding the election for the Constituent Assembly. The Germans promised that in such an event, absolute freedom of elections such an event, absolute freedom of elections should be respected even in the territory now occupied by the Prussians. Thiers thereupon withdrew to the outposts to consult Favre, but at length returned to Versailles, without the power to accept the German terms. King William issued an order that no person will hereafter be allowed to enter or leave Paris. Four passengers have just been captured, and will be court-martialed for a violation of the order.

BISMARCK'S ACCOUNT CONFIRMED. LONDON, Nov. 8.-Private advices from Versailles confirm the account given by Bismarck of a suspension of the negotiations for an armistice. BAZAINE NOT A TRAITOR BUT INCAPABLE OF COMMANDING A LARGE ARMY. NEW YORK, Nov. 7-A Herald's special from Brussels, dated the 5th, states that Gen. Changarnier declares Bazaine not guilty of treachery at Metz. He was incompetent to command a large army. The numbers bewildered him. He could not move believe him a hero. After Bazaine was driven into Metz, on the 19th of August, he could have escaped had he marched boldly out with his entire army. During the thirteen remaining days of September and the first five days of October, he could havedone first five days of October, he could havedone have days of October, he could have done first five days of October have days of Octobe this with absolute certainly. Any sound military man will tell you the same thing. Then there were fifty-eight days that they were in the strongest fortress in France, when this 150,000 and over of the bravest and most experienced soldiers could have made their exit, and once in the field there would have been no more Sedans. Sedan was noted for troops who Sedan was noted for troops who insulted their officers, and who were insuborthe national elections. Preparations are dinate and inefficient. What sort of an army is that? Look at the army in Metz. The tion on the 30th inst. is that? Look at the army in Metz. The soldiers were obedient and every command was executed. You see there were no Red Republicans in the Metz army. During the last ten days of the investment of Metz sor-

TOURS, Nov. 7—Despatches from Vendome says the proposition for the armistice has been manimously refused by the leaders of the Paris Government. The reason for this is found in the refusal, on the part of Prunia, of the project to revitual the city, and also because she accepted, with reserve, the scheme for allowing Alsace and Lorraine to vote for members of the Constituent raine to vote for members of the Constituent Assembly. The Paris Government is generally supported in its action by the people of all classes. THE RIOTS IN PARIS. Dates from Paris, of yesterday, are at and. The Journal Officials announces that

THE WAR GOES ON-REPORTED FAILURE OF VERSAULES, Nov. 6—The Provisional Government has finally rejected the protocol urged upon them by Thiers and Bismarck, although previously they signified their approval. Thiers has received orders from Paris, to notify Bismarck that the conditions could not be accepted and to return to the capital immediately. The cause of the rupture is believed to be the persistence of Bismarck, in insisting on guarantees for the session of territory. It is also believed that negotiations were broken off on account of the NEGOTIATIONS.
